Notice of action taken on your credit application

Thank you for your recent application for a mortgage loan to purchase a home. After reviewing the information provided with your application, we are unable to approve your request at this time.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR OUR DECISION

The Equal Credit Opportunity Act requires us to tell you the specific principal reasons for this decision. They are:

1. Your total monthly debt payments are high relative to your monthly income.
2. The loan amount is high relative to the value of the property, leaving limited equity.
3. Your income is low relative to the amount you requested.
4. Economic indicators for the area in which the property is located.

WHAT WOULD HAVE CHANGED THE OUTCOME

> A debt-to-income ratio at or below 49% would have produced an approval, holding all other factors constant.

This describes how our assessment would have differed if that single factor had been different and everything else had stayed the same. In practice these factors move together, so it is an illustration of how your application was assessed rather than a guarantee about a future application.

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER FEDERAL LAW

> The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

> The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20552.

If you have questions about this decision, or would like to discuss your application, please contact us at the address above.

CONSUMER REPORT INFORMATION

No consumer report or credit score was used in reaching this decision. Our assessment was based solely on the application information described above. Because no consumer report was obtained, the disclosures that the Fair Credit Reporting Act would otherwise require — the notice under section 615(a) that a consumer report was used, and the credit score disclosure under section 609(g) — do not apply and are deliberately omitted rather than included as inapplicable boilerplate.
